You've got Bible questions. We've got answers. The Bible is full of great truths for our lives . . . and also, if we're being honest, a lot of mysteries that we don't understand. You've probably wondered about these questions many times. You'd like good answers. Just keep it short and sweet. But where can you turn for reliable guidance? Dr. Michael Rydelink, beloved Moody professor and host of the radio call-in show Open Line, answers the questions that listeners often ask him. Michael addresses questions such as: Why does God allow bad things to happen? Did Noah really fit all the animals of the earth on a boat? Can I lose my salvation? What is the best Bible translation--King James or another? How can you explain the Trinity? Did Jesus really turn water into wine? And much more . . . Though the Bible is full of mysteries, it has no errors. There are good answers to all the perplexing questions. Don't stay in the dark any longer. Get the answers from an expert and let your confusion turn to understanding.

One of the great benefits of reading God's Word is the way that it makes us think. If you're like most people, when you read the Bible you are forced to begin to face issues and situations that you never have before. And that is a great thing! But sometimes you run up against some Scriptures that leave you scratching your head...it's not easy reading accounts that were written in a different culture, with customs, sayings, and behavior that is foreign to you. And once in awhile you run into something you just plain don't understand. This resource will help you answer questions like: *Was there rain before the Flood? *What is the significance of Seven? *Who were the Lost Tribes? *Did God give Job over to Satan? *Why did Moses strike the rock? *Was John the Baptist Elijah? *How did Judas die? *What is the baptism of fire? *What is it to be risen with Christ? *Why was Jesus baptized? And 545 More!
