There are over 2000 registered historic buildings in Shanghai, with hundreds more waiting to be added. Most are pre-War structures and are either Western buildings, or Chinese-style buildings with a distinct Western influence. These include villas, offices, apartment buildings and shikumen (a house of both wood and brick). Structures were selected for this book because of the interesting stories behind them or because they were related to a topical news event.

Contemporary Black American Cinema offers a fresh collection of essays on African American film, media, and visual culture in the era of global multiculturalism. Integrating theory, history, and criticism, the contributing authors deftly connect interdisciplinary perspectives from American studies, cinema studies, cultural studies, political science, media studies, and Queer theory. This multidisciplinary methodology expands the discursive and interpretive registers of film analysis. From Paul Robeson's and Sidney Poitier's star vehicles to Lee Daniels's directorial forays, these essays address the career legacies of film stars, examine various iterations of Blaxploitation and animation, question the comedic politics of "fat suit" films, and celebrate the innovation of avant-garde and experimental cinema.
