will be guided to tune into the frequency of your own planet or star system. Here you will learn the location of your planet and re-experience the environmental conditions of this planet. The climate of this world will be experienced through the psychic senses; which are the sight, sound, smell, taste, and feeling. You will also be reunited with your star family. You will be invited to spend time with them and may ask them questions. Further connection with your home planet enables you to tune into the energy of your twin flame / soul mate and realization of your pure soul spark, deepening your level of love for self and others.
