Worth Believing

Who is the Spirit? Is he a person or a spiritual force? How are we meant to relate to him?

book broadens our engagement with him, touring aspects of his vast character that often go unexplored. It turns out, living here in the Spirit is the source of the most meaningful, creative, satisfying life possible.

Discipleship is eschatological in nature, because the church that Often eschatology is thought to refer only to “last things” doctrines.

However, eschatology
in its broader sense
encompasses the Christian view of time and the future of the world, informing both one’s evangelism and ecclesiology. Failing to
